Business:

Sgt. Angst won $5 for the 50/50 raffle. Lt. Picciolo thanked us for remembering the family in regard to his daughter. There will be no Western Days this year. A new event is called "Music By the Mile" at State Fair, July 23-27. Capitol Police is not at State Fair anymore. Not they are the State Fair Police. The Chicken BBQ drive thru will come in on Lapham and turn left onto 65th. Monday, May 12 is the next meeting in the detective room. Sgt. Hughes said that we will order 75 Entertainment books. We need a chairman for that. The books will be $35 per book. They will be sold at the Settler's Weekend. ID's will be done next month. Lt. Peterson and squad 5 were recognized for the most hours in the 1st quarter of 2008. West Allis Foundation Dinner Dance through Joyce O'Donnell, thanked us for helping. They raised $7000.
